

The community of Alamogordo is gearing up for an exciting event this June. Pam Holland of Australia is one of our nation's top five quilters. Pam will travel to Alamogordo to host a three-day extravaganza. The festivities begin with the vendors set up on Thursday, June 24, 2010.

"Award winning Pam Holland, quilt teacher, designer is coming to Alamogordo, New Mexico to present two days of quilt classes and a dinner lecture. Be prepared to be challenged and entertained by Pam while expanding your skills and quilting horizons. Travel the world with Pam as she shares her travels and adventures through photos and learn how her travels inspire her quilt designs."

Schedule:

June 24	10:00 a.m. vendor set-up (sales may begin after 2:00 p.m.)
June 25	8:00 a.m. Vendors open to the public
June 26	8:00 a.m. Vendors open to the public

Classes with Pam will be held on June 25 and 26.
Dinner Lecture will be held on June 25.

Closing and tear down times and dates to be determined.

Space Size and cost:

8 X 8 (single space booth)	$ 100.00
2 booths 8 X 8 (has divider in the middle of the booth)	$ 175.00
8 X 16 (with no divider, limited booths)	$ 250.00

We also have larger spaces available. Please contact for prices.

The event will be held at the Otero County Fair Grounds in Alamogordo. Dry-docking for RVs will be allowed on the Fair Grounds parking lot.

Reserve your booth for this extravaganza:

Contact:

Lorraine Mackewich
First National Bank
414 Tenth Street
Alamogordo, N.M. 88310
575-437-4880

raineemackewich@fnbalamo.com